The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 5. to Saturday November 9. 1717.

Berne, October 25.

THE Baron de la Tour, Chief Miniſter to the Abbot of St Gall, in Anſwer to the Letter this Canton wrote lately to him concerning an Accommodation between the two Cantons of Zurich and Berne and that Abbot, has acquainted this State, that his Maſter is ſincerely diſpoſed to Peace; and as a Proof of it deſires, that ſome Perſons may meet together on both Sides, without Character, to examine his Pretenſions, and diſcuſs in a Conference ſuch Points as have hitherto obſtructed a Pacification, leaving the Time and Place of ſuch a Conference to the two Cantons to determine. This Matter will be taken into Conſideration at the firſt Meeting of the Sovereign Council of Two Hundred, which will be held in a few Days.

Leghorne, Oct. 29. Laſt Week an armed Veſſel of Catalonia took a Neapolitan Bark laden with Corn, and carried her into Porto-Longone: But the Spaniſh Governour there having no Orders to allow of any Hoſtilities againſt the Shipping of the Kingdom of Naples, the ſaid Bark was releaſed, and arrived here Yeſterday.

Genoa, Nov. 2. On the 26th of laſt Month arrived a Courier in 10 Days from Madrid, with Diſpatches which he delivered to the Spaniſh Conſul reſiding here, to be diſpatched to the Marqueſs de Lede. The ſame Evening a Spaniſh Man of War which had lain ſome Days in our Port, ſailed with thoſe Diſpatches for Sardinia, having alſo on board 20000 Crowns in Specie, which had been remitted hither from Spain for the Uſe of his Catholick Majeſty's Troops on that Iſland. On the 28th Mr. Davenant, His Britannick Majeſty's Envoy, ſet out from hence for Milan, whence he is to proceed to Parma, and thence to Florence, and is expected back here in about ſix Weeks Time. On the 29th arrived here the Duke of Gordon, and Collonel Carpenter; who both imbarked Yeſterday Morning on a Felucca bound to Leghorne. On the 30th came in a Felucca diſpatched from Calvi by the Marqueſs de Malaſpina, who commands the Imperial Regiment of Hamilton which went from hence to aſſiſt the Marqueſs de Rubi in the Defence of Sardinia: Letters by this Felucca dated the 25th paſt adviſe, that about 400 Men of thoſe ſent to Sardinia from Naples, had been made Priſoners by the People of the Country in their March; that the Marqueſs de Malaſpina had found Means to conveigh 150 Men of his Regiment into Caſtel-Arragoneſe, and two Companies into Alguero, with above 50 Barrels of Powder, and as many of Shot, into each of thoſe Places; and that the Marqueſs de Rubi finding the Garriſon of Alguero inclined to Mutiny, had retired from thence in the Night and got into Caſtel-Arragoneſe.

Venice, Oct. 29. This Week arrived a Ship from Corfu, having on Board the Body of the late Vice-Admiral Flangini. The Captain of this Ship reports, that the Turkiſh Fleet being gone into their Ports, the Captain-General Piſani had held a Council of War, in which it was reſolved to attack Previze and Vonizza, and General Schulenbourg is to command in thoſe Enterprizes. The Captain of a French Ship which is come in from Salonichi gives an Account, that the Grand Vizier